ACT: Specific Relief Act, 1877 (Act I of 1877)
YEAR: 1877
PREAMBLE:
An Act to define and amend the law relating to certain kinds of Specific Relief obtainable in c ivil Courts...

--- Part II - Chapter II: Of the Specific Performance of Contracts ---

Section 12: Cases in which specific performance enforceable Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, the specific performance of any contract may in t he discretion of the Court be enforced when the act agreed to be done is in the performance, wh olly or partly, of a trust, or when there exist no standard for ascertaining the actual damage caused by the non-performance of the act agreed to be done, or when the act agreed to be done i s such that pecuniary compensation for its non-performance would not afford adequate relief.
* Discretionary parameters for decreeing specific performance of immovable property contracts

Section 42: Discretion of Court as to declaration of status or right Any person entitled to any legal character, or to any right as to any property, may institute a suit against any person denying, or interested to deny, his title to such character or right, and the Court may in its discretion make therein a declaration that he is so entitled, and the plaintiff need not in such suit ask for any further relief: Provided that no Court shall make a ny such declaration where the plaintiff, being able to seek further relief than a mere declarat ion of title, omits to do so.
* Declaratory decree suit standards and statutory proviso on consequential relief.

--- Part III - Chapter IX: Of Injunctions Generally ---

Section 52: Preventive relief how granted Preventive relief is granted at the discretion of the Court by injunction, temporary or perpetu al.
* General scope of injunctive relief.

Section 54: Perpetual injunctions when granted
Subject to the other provisions contained in, or referred to by, this Chapter, a perpetual inju nction may be granted to prevent the breach of an obligation existing in favor of the applicant
, whether expressly or by implication.
* Grounds: invasion of property rights, trust breach, and prevention of multi-party litigatio n.
